Steamer Plata Brings Many Sicilian lere, but They Seem as a Whole Far from Bloodthirsty.

The steamer Plata, of the Flovio Ru tino line, from Genoa, Naples, Paler me and from Gibraltar Feb. 3, arrived nere yesterday, with 557 steerage pas-engers. The officers of the Immigration sengers. The officers of the immigration of her passengers, for it was reported that the Plata carried a number of Sichian Anarchists, who had fied their country during the Anarchistic uprising that happened about the time the Plata salied. But the fruit of the search was but one alleged Anarchist, Calamo Anaronio, a thickset young man with a bullet head, who declared he left his home and employment in Sicily because he wished to "see his brother in New York." He was detained, although he had a passport issued by the Italian Government and vised by the Italian Government and vised by the Italian Government and vised by the United States Consul at the port from which he sailed. All the other immigrants were similarly armed with passports, and the Immigration officers and the Italian interpreters said that was proof positive that the immigrants were not Anarchists. An immense crowd of their friends greeted the Plata's passengers at Ellis Island, and saluted them laughingly:

"Leave the bombs behind!" They shouted back: "We have no bombs!"

Taken altogether, the immigrants were a very respectable lot of people, clean, well nourished and well dressed. There were many children—fully one-half were women and children, an anasual percentage. One child, Antonio Lucci, was born during the voyage. The young signor is six days old to-day.

The men said that when they left Sicily affairs were quiet. There were about twenty naturalized citizens of the United States among them, returning from a visit to Italy. While only one-was detained as a suspected Anarchist, at least-100 were held on Ellis Island until it can be definitely learned whether or not they are contract laborers. Vederami Antonino boldly put in an appearance from New Orleans, saying that he had work for seventeen men in that city, and had come on to meet them.

Under the Immigration law there is nothing to prevent an Anarchist from landing in this country, provided he is not a Chinese, an idiot, insane, a pauper, suffering from contagious disease, a polygamist, e. possesses some other attributes that the law bars.

To-day, the Anniversary of Washington's Birth, Our Establishment Will Not Ee Open.

On Friday morning we resume the great Wellington Foreclosure Sale, and will continue it every day until the entire stock is sold. As most newspaper readers are aware, this is the greatest sale of Dry Goods that has taken place in years. Even in unfavorable weather our vast establishment has been crowded to the doors. The values are so extraordinary that people gladly come ten, twenty, fifty miles to take advantage of them. Here are samples for the
